BATU CAVES & ROYAL SELANGOR PEWTER TOUR

TOUR CODE: KULBCT

This tour brings you to the outskirts of Kuala Lumpur city. Firstly, you will visit the well-known Royal Selangor Pewter factory, which is the largest in the world. Here, you will get a brief tour around the factory in which you will not only learn about its history, but you will also be given a demonstration of some of the many processes of a pewter product such as casting, filling, polishing and hammering. Thereafter, there will be a brief stop at the Batik Centre, where you will discover how the popular Malaysian fabric is designed and printed. The last part of the tour will be the most exciting, as you will then proceed to the Batu Caves. This world famous limestone outcrop houses a Hindu temple and is visited by thousands of pilgrims and tourists every year. Before climbing up the 272 stairs in order to reach the main cave temple, you will have a chance to admire the impressive golden structure of the 140 feet tall statue of Hindu God Lord Murugan located at the entrance. Once reached the top you will not only be greeted by several cheeky monkeys, but you will also have a great view of the beautiful skyline of Kuala Lumpur.

Note: Tour not available for 3 days on Thaipusam Festival (Eve of the festival, festival day and one day after the festival).

FORGOTTEN TRAILS OF KL CITY

TOUR CODE: KULFT

Think of Kuala Lumpur and what comes to the mind are the Twin Towers, modern high-rise skyscrapers and the busy, modern streets of Kuala Lumpur. Let us go behind the modern high-rise skyscrapers and visit the forgotten trails of KL. Starting from a typical Malay village "Kampung Baru", let's stroll down the streets where Malaysian style food stalls sprout like mushrooms. Marvel at the contrasting picture of traditional small Malay houses fronting this busy street, against the backdrop of the famous KL twin towers and huge skyscrapers. Stop at one of the food stalls and try some local Malay sweets or cakes.

Following which, venture through the wet Chow Kit market, where housewives and hawkers haggle over prices. Chinese, Malays and Indian traders set up their poultry, beef, flowers, seafood and fruit stalls to catch a part of the action. Walk through Little India, past the Jewelry and saree shops. Visit the beautiful Masjid Jamek mosque. Then onto China Town, visit a Chinese Temple, and Indian Temple and ending up with a trip to the National Museum.

This tour ends with a visit to a traditional Chinese Tea House in China Town. After which the guide will bring to you to the Old China Cafe, where you can have an excellent lunch on your own, and reminisce about the forgotten trails of KL city. We drive you back to your hotel.

MALACCA DAY TOUR WITH RIVER CRUISE

TOUR CODE: KULMAC

Malacca has just been conferred the status of Unesco World Heritage Site on 7th July 2008. A full day tour of Malacca is an adventure through more than 600 years of history. The city was formerly ruled by the Portuguese, Dutch and lastly the British.

Visit the St. Peter's Church (built in 1710) – the oldest Christian church still in use in Malaysia today. Drive pass the largest 17th century Chinese cemetery outside of China, located at Bukit China. Proceed to view the famous gateway "Porta de Santiago", also known as "A-Famosa". Once a fortress, it was built by the Portuguese in 1511. Visit the ruins of St. Paul's Church where St. Francis Xavier was once buried and much more. Next visit the Stadhuys – 1641 to 1660 – also known as the "Red Square" due to the salmon pink color of the building. It was once a Dutch Administration center which today houses the Malacca Museum and some government offices.

Enjoy a 40 minutes boat ride on the Malacca River to have a good journey through time, passing by and seeing old buildings along the river and fishing villages. After the cruise continue on a walking tour to Cheng Hoon Teng ancient Chinese Temple before lunch at a local restaurant. After lunch, take a leisurely stroll along Malacca's antique row know as Jonker Street. See all sorts of antiques on display at reasonable price, art galleries, souvenir shops, dried food shop and etc.

KAMPONG TOUR (FIREFLIES)

TOUR CODE: KULKFW

Kuala Selangor is only a 90-minute drive from Kuala Lumpur and yet it has much to offer, especially to those who wish to take a peek at Malaysian rural life. Fishing and farming are the main occupations here, although a large part of the area has also been cultivated with oil palm and rubber. Upon arrival, you will be taken to visit a Chinese fishing village. This is followed by a sumptuous Chinese seafood dinner, after which we treat you to the highlight of the evening: firefly watching. You will be rowed upstream where you can see thousands of fireflies flickering like Christmas lights in mangrove trees lining the banks of the river. After this tour, you are driven back to the city.
